Built to hold up in court.

BestInterest® doesn't just help you communicate better — it creates a verified, court-ready record to back it up.

Certified Business Records

Our court reports meet the legal standard for admissible evidence without the authentication challenges that come with screenshots or printouts.

Verification Codes

Every report includes a verification code to confirm its authenticity and chain of custody. If records are ever questioned, the verification speaks for itself.

"BestInterest protects you from yourself... it allows you to respond to the substance of the message... and it can train you not to need it."

Your complete co-parenting support system.

Message Shield®

Filters inflammatory or manipulative language from incoming messages before they reach you — so only child-focused communication gets through.

Solo Mode

The only co-parenting app that works without the other parent using the app. No court order. No mutual agreement. Start protecting yourself today.

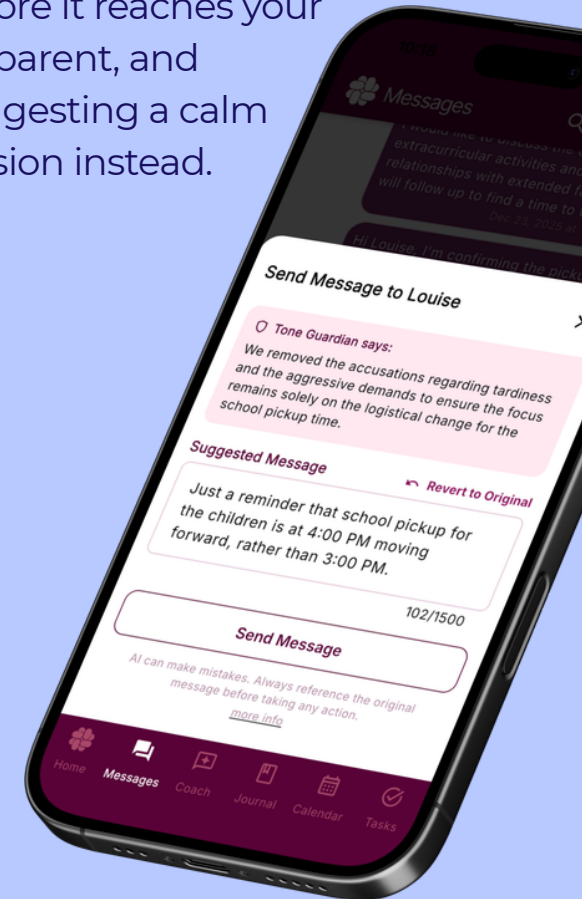

Coparent Coach

Not sure how to respond? Get real-time guidance on tone, de-escalation, and the right way to respond — keeping you protected.

"...for the first time in months I feel at ease and protected. It feels like I have an AI Bodyguard who's got my back and keeping me safe from harassment." — R.S., mother

Before you hit send.

Tone Guardian® reviews every message you write — detecting emotionally charged language before it reaches your co-parent, and suggesting a calm version instead.

Active moderation that protects you — and promotes peace.
